

Latin Name: Magnolia x soulangiana

Common Name: Saucer Magnolia

Family: Magnoliaceae

Height x Width: 20+x variable

Habit: upright when young, spreading and rounded with age

Bloom Color: white>pink>purple

Bloom Time: March-April

Leaves: alternate, simple, entire, 3-6in., dark gr. above, pubescent below

Flowers: huge, 9 tepals, white inside, pink>purple outside

Fruit: aggregate of follicles, <4in.

Fall Color: yellow, brown

Remarks: Quintessential magnolia, often sporadic bloom later in summer.

Often affected by freezes.

This beautiful tree was killed by a late freeze in 2007

Where to find Magnolia x soulangiana in Maxwell Arboretum

