A few things to look for in Maxwell Arboretum in October

1. Chionanthus virginicus  White Fringetree
2. Late season herbaceous perennials including grasses
3. Lagerstroemia indica ‘Filli’ Hardy Crape Myrtles
4. Ceratostigma plumbaginoides  Plumbago
5. Oenothera lindheimeri  Gaura
6. Clematis integrifolia  Solitary Clematis*
7. Calllicarpa dichotoma  Beautyberry*
8. Tilia  Linden [buds]
9. Diospyros virginiana  American Persimmon*
10. Salix discolor  Pussywillow [buds]
11. Betula sp.  Birch species [catkins]

For a great display of late-season herbaceous plants, visit the Evasco and Rain Chain Gardens, north across the street from the Arboretum.

12. Lonicera xylosteum  European Fly Honeysuckle*
13. Prairie, native grasses
14. Phellodendron amurense  Amur Cork Tree*
15. Malus sp.  Crabapples*
16. Juglans nigra  Black Walnut*
17. Carya sp.  Pecans, Hickories, etc*.
18. Celastrus scandens  American Bittersweet
19. Clematis terniflora  Autumn Clematis

Plants with asterisks* are listed for their fruits or seedheads.